PRAYER  ROOM

Tips to engage during our time together: rlc.sg/rpr-engage

While Israel wandered in the wilderness, Scripture tells us that Moses pitched a Tent of Meeting for man to seek God. It was a place of encounter, where the pillar of cloud would descend and the Lord would speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend (Exo 33:11). It was also where Joshua, Moses' young assistant, would be marked by God's presence.

This is the heart of the RiverLife Prayer Room: to be a space set apart for intimacy and encounter, for every generation to collectively and corporately behold God, to minister to His heart, and to let Him mark our lives for His mission and His return.

We invite you, with your family or community, to set apart time and space amid the busyness of your week to pause, realign, and set our hearts to behold Jesus together. Christ, minister to His heart and allow Him to set us apart for His Kingdom's work.

JOINING THE FAMILY

"Many Christians don't realise that joining a church is a vital step of discipleship. When you join a church, you are not joining a social club; you are publicly declaring your faith in Jesus and joining yourself to a group of Christians in life and mission".

- Godwin Sathianathan

You will discover how to take ownership of the mission, vision and values of this house. The course ends with details on the application process to become a RiverLife family member.

RIVERLIFE BIBLE READING PLAN

We're into the 7th month!

Download weekly reading schedule at rlc.sg/brp.

The mark of a growing disciple is the discipline to self-feed. During this unprecedented time, the Lord is redirecting His people to pause and rediscover Him and His ways afresh. This is the heart behind our Bible Reading Plan - that we, as a church will delight the Father when we are growing in our love for Him and allowing His Spirit to move us in obeying His Word in our lives.

The more we know God and obey His Word, our faith will be unshakeable regardless of the situation around us.

The Bible Reading Plan comprises a daily passage with reflection questions to guide you in meditation. You can also journal what God's Spirit is prompting you to do in applying the Word.

Join us to read through the books of Nehemiah and 1 Peter and the various themes that these books address.

ATTRACTING THE PROMISES OF HEAVEN (1 PETER 3:8-12)

INTRODUCTION

1 Peter 3:8-12 (NIV)

1. THE SITUATION

Life was challenging and extremely difficult for the believers that Peter was writing to in the book of 1 Peter.

1 Peter 1:6

In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.

1 Peter 2:20

2. THE PROMISE

Even in the midst of extreme life challenges, Peter wrote some wonderful promises to the suffering New Testament believers.

1 Peter 3:10 & 12

For, "Whoever would love life and see good days must keep their tongue from evil and their lips from deceitful speech. (v10)

For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil. (v12)

3. THE LIFE THAT ATTRACTS THE PROMISES OF HEAVEN

The person who manifests godly Christian attitudes. (v8)

Finally, all of you, be like-minded, be sympathetic, love one another, be compassionate and humble. (v8)

The person who values forgiveness and blessings over revenge. (v9)

Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult. On the contrary, repay evil with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing. (v9)

4. THE CHOICE

1 Peter 3:12

For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.

- In the Bible, the phrase 'the eyes of the LORD' always relates to God's watchfulness over His special people.
- 'The face of the LORD' on the other hand, often refers to God's judgement.
